ABOUT COLLEGE, COURSES & RULES

FOREWORD

Maharajadhiraj Uday Chand Women's College founded on July 28, 1955 owes its establishment to the passion for women education of Late Santosh Kumar Bose, an enthusiastic member of the town's intellectual elite, Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy, the then Chief Minister of West Bengal, and to crown it all, His Highness Uday Chand Mahatab, who gifted one royal palace to be used as Women's College. Later on, a portion of Anjuman Kachhari attached to the palace was also gifted to the College. As a mark of gratitude the institution has been named after Maharajadhiraj Uday Chand Mahatab. During 2014-15 the college observed the Diamond Jubilee, the glorious sixty years of its existence. The Golden Jubilee (2004-05), inaugurated by Mr. Somnath Chattopadhyay, Hon'ble Speaker, Lok Sabha (2004-09), was marked by introduction of PG course in English (2005). The college has earned name in the district for the quality of teaching and enviable success rate. The college can boast of having produced over 50 university rank holders (1-5) in past five years covering 15 out of 16 Honours subjects. A good number of our ex-students have been placed in different Government and Private sectors. Recognized by the UGC (both 2f & 12b), the college was accredited by NAAC in 2004 and reaccredited in 2012.

The College has earned a rating of 3 (Superactive) from Spoken Tutorial (IIT Mumbai). The College may also boast of having produced during the past 5 years 60 university rank holders (1 to 5 position) covering 15 departments.
