DIRECTION TO THE STUDENTS FOR ENSUING STUDENTS' ELECTION FOR THE SESSION 2016-2017

- 1 Only students whose names appear in the Final Electoral Roll are eligible to cast vote. Identity cards bearing their signature and bill books showing the clearance of session charge for the session 2016-17 within date line (19-12-2016) are to be produced for verification of identity and other electoral works.
- 2 As the name & surname of a candidate figuring in the Electoral Roll are referred to in all cases related to election, candidates intending to contest / propose are to carefully check the spelling of the name, title etc. from the Electoral Roll. The spelling of a student's name as appears in the Final Electoral Roll is to be taken as final for all electoral purposes.
- 3 Students who have changed their shifts must produce both the bill books (Morning and Day) for necessary verification.
- 4 Collection, submission and withdrawal of Nomination Papers are to be done personally by the students willing to contest. However, submission, if required, may be done through authorized agent who is preferably to be a bona fide student of the same class as per Electoral Roll. Only two Nomination Papers will be issued to each candidate. Each candidate must put her signature in full with date in the Nomination Paper Issue Register as well as in the space specified for signature of the candidate in the Nomination Paper in time of collection of Nomination Paper.
- 5 The truth and authenticity of the particulars given by the candidate in Nomination Paper are the responsibility of their own.
- 6 Nomination Paper duly and legibly filled in must be submitted on specified date and time. Nomination Paper is to be submitted along with fees receipt of session 2016-2017 (photo copy only) of the candidate as well as the proposer.
- 7 Proposer of a candidate in the Nomination Paper must be one of her class mates, who has also to be an eligible voter. One Proposer may propose as many candidates as tally with the number of seats for the particular class. If a proposer's signature does not stand on scrutiny, all Nomination Paper(s) where she is a proposer are liable to be cancelled.
- 8 Signature of the candidate is to be verified from the signature on the Identity Card. In case of any dispute, any other reliable documents like Admission Form will be consulted for verification.
- 9 Withdrawal of Nomination Paper is to be done personally by filling in Form 2 and by producing "Certificate of Delivery of Nomination Paper" and doing other formalities as applicable.
- 10 College I. Card is to be issued & renewed with respect to the particular class. Issue & renewal of I. Card will remain suspended from 05-01-2017 to 09-01-2017 & on 19-01-2017
- 11 The Key to the door of the Union room and almirahs must be handed over to the Returning Officer ten days before the day of election. Union room will remain closed till the formation of new council.
- 12 No student without valid bill book(s) & college Identity Card will be allowed to enter the college premises from the date of issue of Nomination Paper to the date of poll.
- 13 Access of the outsider to the college and all staff (permanent & temporary) will be provided with I card carrying which will be mandatory from 03-01-2017 till the completion of election.
- 14 As signature and other details of the contesting candidate as well as of the Proposer are to be verified at the time of scrutiny, Bill Book & Identity Card of the Candidate & Proposer must be produced at the time of scrutiny.
- 15 No Flag/Festoon/Hoarding of any political party is allowed in the college premises.
- 16 Campaigning is permitted in a manner befitting the dignity of an institute of higher learning.
- 17 Disputes are to be settled as per provision of the B.U. First Regulation.
