Report on Major Activities of Chirayata – MUC Women's College Alumni Association

- Chirayata, the Alumni Association of MUC Women's College, Burdwan, organizes different socio-cultural academic and welfare activities for the benefit of students as well as society. The professed objectives are sensitization of the students to relevant issues of social importance and community wellbeing with a view to integration of the students with the larger society inside and outside the campus.
- Chirayata conducts seminars, two or three a year, for the College students in order to sensitize them to relevant social issues and raise the level of their social awareness.
- It also organizes 'Health Check-up' programme in collaboration with Burdwan District Red Cross one for College students & another for senior citizens below the poverty line.
- It raises fund and donates lump sum amount for the development of the College.
- Since 2017 it has been sponsoring two needy but meritorious students of the College to help them to pursue their studies.
- It organizes annual cultural programmes in the College for disabled students of the schools for children with special needs in the city for sensitization of learners to the needs & abilities of special children.
- Last but not the least, Chirayata extends its welfare activities by imparting basic literacy training counseling, teaching yoga, arts & crafts for the inmates of the Female Ward of BCCH (Burdwan Central Correctional Home) twice a week.
- Thus Chirayata goes on with its tireless striving for the social welfare and awareness of the students of the College as well as of the people of the larger community outside.
