ABOUT COLLEGE

Maharajadhiraj Uday Chand Women's College, the only Women's College in Purba Bardhaman District of West Bengal founded on July 28, 1955. It owes its establishment to the passion for women education of Late Santosh Kumar Bose, an enthusiastic member of the town's intellectual elite, Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy, the then Chief Minister of West Bengal, and to crown it all, His Highness Uday Chand Mahatab, who gifted one royal palace to be used as Women's College. Later on, a portion of Anjuman Kachhari attached to the palace was also gifted to the College. As a mark of gratitude the institution has been named after Maharajadhiraj Uday Chand Mahatab. During 2014-15 the college observed the Diamond Jubilee, the glorious sixty years of its existence. The Golden Jubilee (2004-05), inaugurated by Mr. Somnath Chattopadhyay, Hon'ble Speaker, Lok Sabha (2004-09), was marked by introduction of PG course in English (2005). The college has earned name in the district for the quality of teaching and enviable success rate. A good number of our ex-students have been placed in different Government and Private sectors. Recognized by the UGC (both 2f & 12b), the college was accredited by NAAC in 2004 and reaccredited (3rd cycle) in 2018 with CGPA of 2.64.

The College has earned a rating of 3 (Super active) from Spoken Tutorial (IIT Mumbai). The College may also boast of having produced during the past 5 years 60 university rank holders (1 to 5 position) covering 16 departments.
